Questions I will have

What makes a house a home?

What does home mean to me?

How is God present in my life?

What I will be able to do

ask and respond to questions about my own and others' experiences and feelings about homes.

ask questions about what I and others wonder about what makes a house a home and realise that sometimes this is a difficult question to answer.

retell some of the advice offered by Paul in his letters about living together as a family and the life of the Holy Family.

describe some ways Christians live as people chosen by God.

ask questions about what I and others wonder about how God is always with us, and realise that this is a difficult question to answer.

make links to show how feelings and beliefs affect how me, my behaviour and that of others in relation to the give and take of living in a family.

compare my own and other people's ideas about the difficult question of what make a house a home.

make links between some scripture they have studied and the belief that God can make a difference in everyday life through God's unchanging love.

give reasons why Christians should try to love others.

compare my own and others' ideas about what I and others wonder about how God is always with us, and realise that some questions are difficult to answer.

Scripture and Key Facts

In Paul's letter to the Romans 12:8-11, he describes the positive ways we can create a happy home and Christian community.

Paul gives advice on how parents and children should love and respect one another in his letters to the Ephesians. Ephesians 5:1-9 tells us how to be like God and be guided by love, and Ephesians 6:1-4 helps families to live in love and harmony.

In Luke 2:39-40, Mary, Jesus and Joseph had fled to Egypt to escape Herod who wanted to harm Jesus, and eventually were able to return to Nazareth. Jesus learned the trade of a carpenter and was brought up in the Jewish faith to love and know God.

Mary and Joseph taught Jesus to pray, especially using the Psalms. He would have attended the synagogue with Joseph. Paul tells us in his letter to the Philippians 4:4-9 to pray regularly and how prayer is about keeping in touch with God who is always with us.

The Gospel according to John tells us that Jesus has a new rule that was the most important "You must love one another just as I have loved you" (John 13:34-35)

In his letters to the Colossians, Paul encourages those who are part of the Church in how to love each other and help one another so the peace of Christ may fill their hearts. Colossian's 3:12-17

Dear Friends
We all have been given lovely gifts.

When you give, give with a loving heart.

If you have a job to do, do it really well.

If you are helping someone, do it happily.

Be real in your love for each other.

Do not just pretend to be good.

Love and care for each other as good brothers and sisters.

Be whole-hearted and enthusiastic in all you do.

Be joyful.

When things get hard, keep on going.

Pray regularly.

Share what you have with people in need.

Always make people feel welcome.

Based on Romans 12:8-11 (God's Story 3)

Romans 12: 8-13 - Be Real About Loving

Since you are God's dear children, you must try to be like him.

Let the light of your goodness and truthfulness shine out for everyone.

Your life must be guided by love just as Jesus was guided by love.

It is wrong for you to use bad or rude language. Instead you should give thanks to God.

You must not be greedy. You must be like people who live in the light.

Ephesians 5:1-2, 4-5, 8-9 (Come and See)

Ephesians 5: 1-9

Children, it is your Christian duty to obey your parents for this is the right thing to do. Respect your father and mother.

Parents do not treat children in such a way as to make them angry. Instead bring them up to keep the rule of Jesus.

Based on Ephesians 6:1-4 (Come & See)

Ephesians 6:1-4.

God is very near

*Be happy! I'm going to say it again.
Be joyful - always!
God is very near.*

*Don't worry about anything.
Instead, ask God for what you need.*

*Pray with a grateful heart knowing how much God loves you;
And the peace of God, which is greater than we can understand,
Will fill your minds and hearts and keep you safe and close to Jesus*

(based on Philippians 4:4-9)

I give you a new rule. It's this: love one another.

You must love another just as I have loved you.

If you have love for one another then everyone will recognise that you are my disciples.

Based on John 13:34-35 (Come & See)

John 13:34-35

God loves you and has chosen you. You are a holy people. You must be full of thoughtfulness for others, generous, gentle and patient.

Put up with one another; be ready to forgive each other if something goes wrong. The Lord has forgiven you. You must do the same.

And, most important of all, love each other. And may the peace of Christ fill your hearts. This is why you belong to the Christian Family.

Always be thankful. Remember the wonderful word of Jesus.

Be ready to teach and help each other, sharing what you know. Be happy and enjoy singing hymns to God.

And in everything you say or do, do it as Jesus would want you to, giving thanks to God the Father.
